Salary Policy

Effective Date: 1 January 2026

Purpose

This policy defines salary payment, revisions, deductions, bonuses, and employee compensation guidelines.

Salary Payment

Employees are paid monthly on the last working day of each month. Salary is credited directly to the registered bank account.

Salary Revision

Salary reviews are conducted once every calendar year based on performance, business requirements, and company policy.

Performance Bonus

Eligible employees may receive an annual performance bonus of up to 15% of their annual basic salary depending on performance ratings.

Overtime

Approved overtime is compensated according to company regulations.

Salary Deductions

Applicable taxes, provident fund contributions, and other statutory deductions are applied before salary is credited.

Leave Without Pay

Unauthorized leave or leave without sufficient balance may result in salary deductions proportional to the number of unpaid leave days.

Final Settlement

Final salary, leave encashment (if applicable), and other dues are processed within 30 days after the employee's last working day.
